Study Question 4

- What descriptive words did the master use for the display of fireworks on the Fourth of July? (p. 308)

Study Question 5

- Beloved Victory said that we will make a great discovery if we make a halfhearted attempt to embody the light of victory. What is this great discovery? (p. 309)

Study Question 6

- With a twinkle of mirth, the master tells us:

“I AM the house of Victory. I AM the house of Victory. I AM that house, beloved, and in my house there is not a mouse.” (p. 309)

- What meaning do the master’s words have for you?

Study Question 7

- Beloved Victory illumines us on “the principle of devouring time.” What did he say? (p. 309)

Study Question 8

- Continuing with his dictation the master gives us the following loving words of encouragement and comfort:

“Being so loved, beloved ones, being therefore so tenderly cared for, you must surely know that if you will merely put one foot before the other, you can arrive at the gate. We are determined that no folly or foolishness of fallen ones nor brashness nor despot should ever, ever again compromise the beloved of the light.” (p. 309)

- Please write the words from this beloved master someplace where it is easily accessible for you to see and read them in the coming weeks to remind you of how much Victory loves you.

Study Question 9

- In this dictation Victory tells us there is a convergence on planet earth of those who embody illumination’s flame and that they come for a specific purpose. (p. 309)
- For what purpose did they congregate? (p. 309)

Study Question 10

- Beloved Victory once again articulates his reason for coming. What did the master say? (p. 309)
